Dear DV Applicant:

This is the official notice for you to pursue your application for a DV-2011 visa. An appointment has been scheduled for the applicant at the stated location. The applicant and all members of the applicant's family must appear at the appointed date and time for your interview. Please notify the office listed if you cannot keep the appointment.

The applicant and any eligible family members will be required to submit sufficient proof of identity upon arrival. If you fail to obtain a DV-2011 visa by September 30, 2011, your registration will expire. Applicant and family members cannot be issued a diversity visa or accompany you or join you in the United States under the DV-2011 program after September 30, 2011.

Please follow instructions provided in step 4 at www.dvselectee.state.gov for Interview Preparation and Fee Payments. It is very important that you follow the guidelines carefully in the preparation for your interview. All fees must be paid before the visa interview and are non-refundable if the visa is refused.
